REP. ROBERTS REPORTS:

As a new member of the Legislature, I can verify that I have certainly been kept busy under the new committee system which permits no proxy votes.

Our day starts at 8 a. m., and goes until six, with evening meetings many times. To date, over 2,000 bills have been introduced in the House and Senate and the House calendar is at present crowded with over 40 pages of bills.

I have been both thrilled and sorely disappointed at some of the actions of the Legislature. Of special interest to our County, I feel the passage of the junior college appropriation bill of $1,047,000 is one of the highlights of our accomplishments. This bill of course gives our junior college a modern and excellent classroom and administration building all its own. It will encourage parents and students from our area to attend college near home for the first two years, thereby reducing the cost of education to their parents and at the same time allowing them to get their feet on the ground before going away to some other school.

The delegation has been very successful in securing substantial appropriations for the Flood Control District, the Glades Prison Farm, the Agricultural Experiment Station, and the Everglades Fire Control Unit. In addition, I have introduced a bill directing the feasibility study of establishing a branch of a state university in Palm Beach County. Recent action of our higher education problems point to the need of a University in South Florida, and I think it would be a wonderful thing if we could get it located in our county.

The delegation has introduced over 50 local bills to date, with more now being processed. Included in those already passed were bills for the Southern and East Shore Drainage District, as well as the five bills for the City of Pahokee. My congratulations to these organizations for having their bills prepared in advance and ready for introduction.

To date, the big fight over reapportionment has not materialized, as everyone is laying off until they get other major legislation out of the way. I do not feel that the job of a legislator is as difficult as many would have one believe. My impression is that any sincere and conscientious person, who comes here to represent the people and votes his convictions, is respected and recognized by his fellow members. It is too bad that the word "politician" has sunk into such ill repute, as by far the greater number of the men here are honestly trying to do a good job. Florida is

WASHINGTON NEWSLETTER

By Sen. George Smathers

WASHINGTON — My able Administrative Assistant, John Carlton, who has worked with me for close to four years, has now moved to a similar position with Senator Walter F. George of Georgia. We in Florida hate to lose him, but Jake and his wife Louise are both native Georgians. They came to me from Georgia, and when Senator George asked me to give Jake up, knowing the affinity existing between all Georgians, I could not very well say no.

We have selected as Jake's successor an experienced newspaper man and a graduate of the University of Florida. He will not be able to join us for a few weeks, so during this interim, we will be operating short-handed.

THE LEGION IS RETURNING. The American Legion national convention, with its thousands of delegates and accompanying tourists, will be back in Florida this summer. First in the vanguard of this great assembly visited me last week en route to his "advance man" duties in the state capital.

William LaVarre, national publications counsel, advised me that a special edition of the Legion magazine will be devoted to Florida's attractions. It is hoped, he said, to induce the Legionnaires to bring their families to the convention, and then to stay another week to visit the many points of interest. I assured him that the people of Florida will be more than happy to extend an extra portion of hospitality for these occasions.

PROTESTING OUR FORESTS: Recognizing the value to Florida of our forest lands, we have worked hard at this and of Florida. They came to me previous sessions to protect them. The Senate Appropriations Committee has restored the fire control fund, of which about $75,000 will go to Florida, and has recommended a $300,000 increase for slash-long leaf pine research. Representatives of the Forest Farmers Association were most helpful and convincing their appearances here on these subjects.

Though the state as a whole is only 62.2% forested, Calhoun County is over 90% forested, one out of only five counties which can claim that distinction.

Liberty County, with 96% of its land area classified as commercial forest acreage, is the most heavily-forested county in the state.

So big, with diversified problems brought about by climate, distances, and even customs, that it makes it hard for complete agreement on every major piece of legislation.

BY SCHÄTZI

Thing is, ya gotta have a title in the back shop, they might give me a title.

I said keep your old title. . . I'm a columnist, and that's what I want to be.

But they said well, look at Washington, D. C. Everybody has a title there. In fact, maybe that's where the title trend started. Janitors started being maintenance consultants, and reporters became correspondents, and clerks forthwith were clerical assistants.

Washington is where, if a person isn't careful, a person gets a large amount of time once or twice or sometimes even three times a year filling out a "position description", the bosses tell me.

One of the bosses said that in a Washington outfit she once worked for, a rather meager pay raise always was heralded by the person being asked to fill out a new "position description".

I got to be, the boss said, that she just kept a carbon copy of the four-page mass of stuff, and everytime a new "description" was to be made, she just copied the old one and changed the dates accordingly, on the premise that nobody but nobody was going to read it anyhow. It worked, she said, and was proved also by a fellow worker, who wrote in, "What tasks occupy the major percentage of your time?" wrote "Answering silly questions like this."

What brings all this to capine mind is that herabout this same page is the news that a good friend of mine, Jake Carlton, who parted me twice last year, has left Sen. Smathers to become "administrative assistant" to Sen. George of Georgia.

Nobody bothers to explain to the general public what is an administrative assistant. In Washington, what that means is that an "AA" as they call 'em on Capitol Hill, is the eyes, ears — and in some instances, it is reluctantly admitted, mind — of a government official.

Usually the salary is commensurate with the task of keeping a legislator or a department head happy with his alter ego.

My friend Jake is in the fortunate position, I can tell by the newspapers, of being "AA" to a really good Senator with a mind of his own, this Mr. George.

But I have found an even better title for him, if he decides to leave sometime in the future. The 1955 edition of the Congressional Directory lists this: Acting Assistant Director and

BY WIN PENDLETON

SHIFT IN SCENE: Three weeks ago when Collier's ran a story about Senator George, it contained more truth than fancy. At one point in the article Senator George is supposed to have told his secretary to call Senator Smathers' administrative assistant, John (Jake) Carlton, and tell him that he wasn't busy. "What if he is busy?" "Tell him I want to see him anyway," the Senator said.

This by-play was inserted in the article to illustrate Senator George's penchant for prompt action. As it turned out, it was a bit prophetic, because last week Senator George really sent for Jake—to be his administrative assistant.

Staff members come and go on Capitol Hill, and ordinarily such moves don't make news. But, this move should be noted carefully, because its ultimate political effects could be far reaching—both in Florida and Georgia.

In Georgia, because Senator George may be facing serious opposition in his race for the Senate next year, he has called each his home. Born in Georgia, he worked on the old Georgian-American and later on the Atlanta Journal. It was there that we first knew him, some 17 years ago. Later he served as a public relations officer with the rank of colonel. Following the war he worked for the Cox papers in Washington—covering news for the Atlanta Journal and the Miami Daily News.

That is where the Florida part of the picture begins to take shape. In 1951, he joined Senator Smathers' staff, as administrative assistant—with the emphasis on the public relations and political aspect of the job. Since that time, his quite unassuming hand has helped to strengthen the public relations and political position in Florida. Smathers himself feels he is stronger than ever in the state and gives Carlton a good work and judgment a goodly share of the credit.

Now, for the first time in ten years, Florida folks won't be "getting the word" from Jake. During that decade, hardly a day passed that something written by Jake didn't appear in some part of the state. First when he wrote for the Miami paper and later when he directed the news which flowed constantly from the office of Senator Smathers. Constantly is a fair adjective to use, because many a Washington newsmen has been called from dinner or awakened at night to take story from the tireless and persistent Carlton. (Including us).

Our best wishes go with Jake — our long-time friend. And even though he's a Georgia cracker again, his friendship with Senator Smathers is very strong — and his connection with Florida close. We predict that the political pot of Florida will be flavored from time to time with bits of Carlton's spice. And a better flavor couldn't be found, either.

Assistant Chief of Section Car Service, Bureau of Safety and Service, Interstate Commerce Commission.

Don't let that "Administrative Assistant" title fool you. There is still a longer way to a titled Washingtonian to go.

ROYAL PALM SCHOOL GETS NEW TOOLS FROM PTA

PAHOKEE—Mrs. Lila Myers who heads the teaching staff of the Glades branch of Royal Palm school, located at PMA camp, reports that the Pahokee Parent-Teacher Association has purchased some new tools for the students, enabling them to do wood work more efficiently.

The new equipment includes two hammers, a planer, a vise, two screwdrivers, two coping saws and a carpenter's saw. The students are engaged in making bird wall plaques and plan to make articles for flower gardens.

More than 90% of Flagler County's land area is classified as commercial forest acreage. Only five Florida counties can claim so high a percentage of woodland.

share of the credit.

During that decade, hardly a day passed that something written by Jake didn't appear in some part of the state. ROBBERVATIONS

FLORIDA FACT AND FANCY

Florida residents or visitors will find nearly 90 books pertaining to the state's history, its people and its resources, listed in Florida Handbook.

A Spanish boy, Escalante de Fontaneda, began the tradition of writing with Florida as a site or as a theme. Shipwrecked in the 16th Century at some place in the Keys, Fontaneda was captured by Indians, survived rare adventures and elaborated upon them in a book which may be the first adventure story written in America and certainly the first in Florida.

"Four Centuries of Florida Random" by George H. Dacy, Miami is only one aspect of Florida history that has been treated in recent times. Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Hanna have made Lake Okechobee a familiar world throughout America by their research and study incorporated into their book of that name. In addition they have written of the golden sands of Florida's coast as well as of historically interesting personages such as Prince Murat, postmaster of Tallahassee and nephew of Napoleon.

Marjory Stoneman Douglas has achieved a distinguished reputation with her "The Everglades: River of Grass," one of the Rivers of America series. For those who love Indian lore, Louis Capron's adult and juvenile fact and fiction books are full of authentic material. Capron has done studies for the Smithsonian Institution and is one of the few white men to witness certain seasonal rites of the Seminoles.

"Natural Features of Southern Florida" was published in 1943 by the Florida Geological survey. Written by John H. Davis, it contains a wealth of material pertaining to formations and strata underlying the peninsula. Garden enthusiasts will find authoritative information in "Shade and Ornamental Trees for South Florida and Cuba" written by David Sturrock of Palm Beach and Edwin A. Mendenhall of the Stuart Daily News.

Theodore Pratt, historian and novelist who makes his headquarters at Boca Raton, has written a trilogy on the east coast beginning with the "Barefoot Mail Man" and concluding with "The Big Bubble". His paperback reprint "Handsome", while dealing in sensationalism, includes excellent local color on the Glades packing houses of some years ago.

Why Southern Bell Cannot Surrender To An Arbitrator Its Responsibility For A Vital Public Service

For weeks now, officials of the CWA Union have been maneuvering to get the issues in the telephone strike turned over to an arbitrator for settlement.

There should be no misunderstanding about what this kind of settlement would mean.

It would mean that a third party would be called in to write a whole new union-management contract — a contract that involves every aspect of this business.

His decisions would be final and Southern Bell would be committed, in advance, to accept them, regardless of their effect on the cost and quality of telephone service — on the job security and job opportunities of telephone employees.

We are not willing to subject this vital public service to so grave a risk.

In the telephone strike, arbitration of the whole dispute, undoubtedly, would create more problems than it would solve.

PROPERLY APPLIED, ARBITRATION IS OFTEN A USEFUL TOOL

It has had an important place in our relations with the Union for many years. In current bargaining, we have offered to expand its use as a means of settling differences that arise under the new contract once it is signed.

In fact, practically every provision of the new contract proposed by the Company is subject to arbitration.

Let there be no misunderstanding then about Southern Bell's position on the principle of arbitration.

On the other hand, arbitration can be taken to extremes. When it is proposed, for instance, as a means for settling fundamental Company policy matters — such as a whole new labor contract — it undermines the effective management of the business. It also invites serious risks that could do great harm to the financial integrity of the business.

The basic principal involved is that Southern Bell, which is charged with the sole responsibility for telephone communications in the area it serves, cannot surrender that responsibility to others.

Our obligation for service under the law cannot be delegated.

In the telephone strike, arbitration would be just another form of compromise. The real issue at stake is the no-strike clause to assure continuous service to the public while the new contract is in effect. Certainly the public's right to continuous service should not be subject to compromise.

THREE QUARTERS OF CENTURY OF SERVICE TO THE SOUTH

Southern Bell has been privileged to serve the South for 75 years. It does not take lightly its responsibility for providing this necessary service.

The Company pays good wages and in current bargaining has offered to make them better. The telephone pension and benefit plan long has been a model for other companies. It has been in effect since 1913.

Working conditions are second to none in all industry. We have offered many improvements in our labor contract and have accepted many Union proposals.

Including all the changes we have proposed, the cost of providing telephone service would be increased by more than $7,000,000 a year under the new contract.

We are willing to guarantee these wages and working conditions. In return, all we ask of Union leaders is that they accept their responsibility for agreeing to protect the public against quickie strikes for the life of the contract.

This they refuse to do on any reasonable basis. They say in effect, "We will take all you have offered and then we want an arbitrator to come in and decide how much more we can get." It is this attitude that is prolonging the strike.

Weddings and Engagements

PALASTHY-BREGER

Of local interest is the recent wedding of Lt. (jg) John Charles Breger, USN, son of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Breger, Belle Glade, to Miss Lola Ethel Palasthy, daughter of Mrs. Michael Julius Palasthy and the late Mr. Palasthy of Portsmouth, Va. The wedding took place May 7 at 4:30 p.m. at Trinity Lutheran Church, Norfolk, Va., with Rev. Paul A. Plawin, pastor, officiating.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Arthur M. Palasthy, wore a gown of lily-of-the-valley silk tulle over peau-de-soir, fashioned with molded bodice and portrait neckline, trimmed with crystal embroidered organza. The full skirt, which ended in a cathedral train, was trimmed with crystal embroidered butterflies. Her veil which was of illusion, fell from a double circlet of lily-of-the-valley. She carried an antique point Venise lace fan, ribbed with forget-me-nots, and lily-of-the-valley, and having a cluster of pink camellias and sweetheart roses. It was edged with lace and showered with lily-of-the-valley and pink roses.

The maid of honor was Miss Laurel Joyce Tamm of Chicago and bridesmaids were Miss Peggy Joyce Seawell and Miss Marlene May Felt of Norfolk, and Mrs. Edward Strong, the groom's sister, of Winter Park, Fla. They wore gowns of white crystalatelle, cut Empire style, with wide scalloped necklines, and wide hoop skirts. The gowns were trimmed with sequin and pearl embroidery. With them they wore large horsehair hats encircled with red velvet ribbons which ended in long streamers hanging to the hems of the gowns. They carried bouquets of red tulips and white lilies.

Lt. Breger had as his best man, Lt. (jg) Carol C. Smith, USN, and as groomsmen Ensign Lee Rice, USN, Ensign C. J. Carmody, USN, Ensign John Meadows, USN, and Lt. (jg) K. Paul Hughes, USN.

sories and an orchid corsage. Upon their return, they will make their home at 21 Sandra Lane, Portsmouth, Va.

Hottest news in Hardtops

is the 4-Door Riviera

Why take anything less than the sensation of the year?

WHEN you learn what's been done in the automobile pictured here, you can easily see why this beauty is winning rave notices coast to coast.

Buick engineers took the hardtop body design that has been growing tremendously in popularity over the past six years—and gave it four doors instead of two.

Simple? Sure—to all outward appearances.

But it took a brand-new kind of body with wholly new structural principles to do it—to bring this long-awaited new kind of automobile to the public in volume numbers and at popular prices.

For this is a true hardtop—with the sleek and racy look of a Convertible, because there are no center posts in the window areas on either side.

And now it has front doors for the front-seat passengers—and rear doors for the rear-seat passengers—plus room increased to the size of a full Sedan.

(It took some special kind of engineering magic, you can be sure, to hinge all four doors at their forward edges for greater safety, and more ease of entering and exiting.)

HOTTEST NEWS IN AUTOMATIC DRIVES IS VARIABLE PITCH DYNAFLOW

It's the world's first transmission with the switch-pitch principle of the modern airplane's variable pitch propeller. You get better gas mileage in cruising. You switch the pitch just by pressing the gas pedal—and get lightning-like response for getaway, or for a sudden safety-surge of accelerating power. It's the performance thrill of the year. Standard on ROADMASTER, optional on other Series at no more extra cost than earlier versions of this wonder drive.

So it looks like Buick has scooped the industry again—and come up with the hottest news in hardtops since Buick originated the first two-door hardtop six years ago.

And you can have it now—in the low-price SPECIAL or the supremely-powered CENTURY—and either one at the modest extra cost of a 4-door model over a 2-door.

Drop in on us today—this week, for sure—and see how easily and how quickly one can be yours.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST, Belle Glade

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE GROUP, Canal Point

The fact that lasting beauty is gained through spiritual understanding of God's radiance and strength will be stressed at Christian Science services Sunday.

The Lesson-Sermon entitled "Soul and Body" includes the following verse from the Bible (Psalm 86:9): "Honour and majesty are before him; strength and beauty are in his sanctuary."

Among the correlative passage to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be the following (247: 10-12, 13-15): "Beauty, as well as truth, is eternal; but the beauty of material things passes away, fading and fleeting as mortal belief... Immortality, exempt from age or decay, has a glory of its own, the radiance of Soul."

The Golden Text is from Psalms (104:1) "Bless the Lord, O my soul. O Lord my God, thou art very great; thou art clothed with honour and majesty."

She was assisted by Mrs. John Schoenfeld, Mrs. Fred White, and Mrs. William Carter. TELEPHONE — exchange of statements between CWA's President Joe Beirne and spokesmen of Southern Bell, in which

BEIRNE SAID:

"I have spent several hours today in conference with representatives of the Mediation Service. I am not disheartened. I see hopeful signs that the telephone company is willing to join us in real collective bargaining. Previously, it was difficult to see the possibilities of breaking the deadlock because of the company's unwillingness to discuss the real issues in the dispute. The Company has moved for the first time since the strike began. This is the significant factor. If the Company has made this move in order to bargain with the public—the governors, various senators, and with the President of the United States instead of with the Union—their real motive will emerge soon enough. If this small glow of hope is dashed by such a maneuver, I believe that negotiations will suffer a near fatal blow."

SOUTHERN BELL REPLIED:

"This self-serving statement by the international Union president—the same man who keeps coming South, urging Union members to get madder—typifies an attitude on his part that has been a constant roadblock to an agreement. His remarks contribute nothing to the settlement of the strike. As he very well knows, his statement regarding the Company's position is not founded on fact. Our position is this—the offer which is before the Union now has been in their hands for some time. It provides for liberal wage increases and expanded arbitration under the contract. It was good before the strike started and it is good now."
